Dear Prospective Participant:

Y. E. C. is centered on mentoring youth ages 7-17 and revitalizing the city of Detroit. Our mission is to mentor youth ages 7-17 by empowering them through training, motivation, encouragement, and support to reach their highest potential. We aim to prevent our participants from experiencing violence, teen pregnancy, low self-esteem, low graduation rates, bullying, drugs, and alcohol so we provide participants with the guidance, resources, and support to help them to prosper into successful young men and young men.

Our boot camp strives to guide participants to reach their highest potential. We work to uncover the young & elegant cotillion by enhancing the qualities and talents of each youth. For that reason, our youth are called Young & Elegant because of the growth they will experience as a part of the program. Our program focuses on just to name a few:

- College Readiness •Etiquette •Character Building •Why grades are important
- Community Service •Financial Literacy •Budgeting •Public Speaking •Reading Literacy
- 200 volunteer hours (high school students) •Ballroom Dancing •Dance •Drama

Opportunities are provided for our youth to give back to the community, attend influential workshops hosted by our volunteers and guests, and participate in social outings that encourage friendship and fun.

We will meet from March 19, 2023, through August 20, 2023, Sundays from 5 pm to 7 pm, culminating with the Cotillion Ball. We will meet Sunday, March 5, 2023, for our first session. We will meet at 2140 Holbrook our official headquarters in Hamtramck, MI.

To join, all prospective participants MUST submit: 1) A completed application, 2) their most recent report card, and 3) Early registration of $30.00 through the end of March 31, 2023, registration fees are non-refundable. Registration ends Sunday, March 26, 2023.
